“Clergy for Choice”

A program of the Religious
Coalition for Reproductive Choice

Join Spiritual Youth for Reproductive Freedom (part of the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice) for a screening of short movie, "The Faithful Struggle for Reproductive Justice: The Clergy Consultation Service on Abortion".

The Reverend David Ames will be joining us for a short discussion following the film. Rev. Ames was part of the Clergy Consultation Service here in Rhode Island prior to Roe vs. Wade. In 1964 he was appointed as the Episcopal Chaplain to Brown and RISD and served in that capacity for 29 years. He has also had an appointment as clinical assistant professor of community health in the Medical School.

Regardless of your views on reproductive rights, come join us for an evening of information, questions and learning.

Refreshments will be provided and all are welcome!
